I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 1.1. The purpose of the Regulations of the Governing Board of “European Humanities University” Public Institution (hereinafter - the “Regulations”) is to regulate work procedures of the Governing Board in more detail according to the requirements laid down in the legal acts and the Statute of “European Humanities University” Public Institution (hereinafter - the “University”).
- 1.2. The Governing Board of the University (hereinafter - the “Governing Board”) is a collegial governing body of the University.
- 1.3. In its activities the Governing Board shall follow the laws of the Republic of Lithuania, the Statute of the University (hereinafter - the “Statute”), decisions of the General Assembly of the Part-Owners of the University (hereinafter - the “General Assembly of the Part-Owners”), these Regulations, decisions adopted by the Governing Board and other legal acts.
- 1.4. If the laws or provisions of the Statute regulating the competence or activities of the Governing Board are amended, then respective provisions of laws or the Statute shall prevail. Should any provisions of the Statute regulating the activities of the Governing Board activities be amended, such provisions must be complied with as of the moment of their registration.
- 1.5. The Governing Board shall organise its work according to these Regulations. These Regulations shall be approved, amended and supplemented by the decisions of the Governing Board. If the General Assembly of the Part-Owners decides to amend the provisions of the Statute regulating the activities of the Governing Board, these Regulations shall be amended by the Governing Board accordingly.
- 1.6. These Regulations are mandatory for all members of the Governing Board, members of the committees and working groups, the Rector, personnel and employees of the University, and other members of the Academic Community of the University.

II. FUNCTIONS OF THE GOVERNING BOARD

- 2.1. The Governing Board shall be the decisive governing body concerning the financial management and administration of the University, including strategic planning, budgetary and financial issues, and any and all related issues pertaining to the effectiveness of higher management.
- 2.2. The competence of the Governing Board shall be defined by the Statute and Lithuanian legislation.

III. COMPOSITION OF THE GOVERNING BOARD

- 3.1. Members of the Governing Board shall be elected by the General Assembly of the Part-Owners. The General Assembly of the Part-Owners may remove from office the entire Governing Board or its individual members before the expiry of the term of office.
- 3.2. The Governing Board comprises no less than nine (9) and no more than eleven (11) members who hold the office by rotation for two (2) or three (3) years.
- 3.3. The Rector of the University (hereinafter - the “Rector”) shall serve ex officio as a member of the Governing Board.
- 3.4. The Governing Board shall elect the Chairperson of the Governing Board from among its members.
- 3.5. Only a natural person may be appointed to serve on the Governing Board.

- 3.6. There is no limitation on the number of terms of offices a member of the Governing Board may serve.
- 3.7. The powers of the member of the Governing Board shall terminate:
- 3.7.1. on the expiration of the term of office, if a new member is elected before the expiry of the term of office (clause 3.8 of the Regulations);
- 3.7.2. upon resignation;
- 3.7.3. when the General Assembly of the Part-Owners removes from office the member or the entire Governing Board;
- 3.7.4. upon the death of the member.
- 3.8. If a new member is not elected before the expiry of the term of office, the existing member shall continue in office until the new member is elected. In this case the new member eventually elected shall hold the office only for the rest of the term, if the General Assembly of the Part-Owners does not decide otherwise.
- 3.9. A member of the Governing Board may resign from office prior to the expiry of his term of office by giving a written notice thereof to the Governing Board addressed to the Chairperson of the Governing Board at least 30 (thirty) days in advance. Therefore the resignation shall become effective not earlier than in 30 (thirty) days after submission of the notice unless it indicates a later date.
- 3.10. If an individual member of the Governing Board is appointed instead of the member who resigned or was removed from office, he/she shall only hold the office until the expiry of the term of office of the member who resigned or was removed, if the General Assembly of the Part-Owners does not decide otherwise.
- 3.11. The Governing Board may form permanent or temporary committees (Executive Committee, Finance Committee, Nominating Committee, etc.) and appoint members of these committees.
- 3.12. The Governing Board may also form working groups and appoint members of these working groups to consider separate issues or to prepare draft documents.
- 3.13. Committees and working groups shall consist of the members of the Governing Board, but may also include other persons as members.
- 3.14. The Governing Board shall decide on the competence and procedure of work of the committees and working groups (within the competence of the Governing Board).
- 3.15. Committees and working groups shall regularly inform the Governing Board about their activities.

The first Meeting

- 3.16. The newly elected Governing Board (its members) shall commence in office after the completion of the General Assembly of the Part-Owners which elected it (them). Until then the previously elected Governing Board (its members) shall exercise its functions.
- 3.17. The first meeting of the new Governing Board shall be convened by the decision of the Rector within 14 (fourteen) calendar days after the election, and in case of his/her failure to convene the meeting, the meeting shall be convened by the decision of at least 5 (five) members of the Governing Board. This meeting shall be chaired by the Rector if the Governing Board does not decide otherwise.
- 3.18. Where the Statute is amended due to the increase in the number of members of the Governing Board, newly elected members of the Governing Board may commence in office only from the date of registration of the amended Statute.

IV. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF GOVERNING BOARD MEMBERS

- 4.1. Members of the Governing Board (including the Chairperson) shall have the following rights:
- 4.1.1. to participate in all the meetings of the Governing Board;

 - 4.1.4. to express his/her opinion in every Governing Board meeting regarding any issue of the agenda, to ask questions; to make remarks to the Chairperson of the meeting regarding the procedure of the meeting and compliance with the Regulations;
 - 4.1.5. by filling in a general ballot to express in advance in writing his/her will "for" or "against" regarding the agenda and draft decisions of the meeting of the Governing Board, where he/she will not be able to participate;
 - 4.1.6. other rights indicated in the Statute and other legal acts.
- 4.2. Members of the Governing Board (including the Chairperson) shall have the following obligations:
- 4.2.1. to act in good faith and reasonably in respect of the University;
 - 4.2.2. to avoid situations of conflict of interests between his/her personal interests and the interests of the University; to inform in writing the Governing Board about such situations;
 - 4.2.3. not to use the property of the University or the information about the University for personal benefit or that of third persons;
 - 4.2.4. to participate in meetings of the Governing Board;
 - 4.2.5. to be loyal to the University and keep in confidence its confidential information;
 - 4.2.6. to perform duly other duties set by the Statute, these Regulations and other legal acts.

V. CHAIRPERSON OF THE GOVERNING BOARD

- 5.1. The Governing Board shall have the power to elect and remove from office the Chairperson of the Governing Board (hereinafter the "Chairperson").
- 5.2. The Chairperson shall be elected from among the members of the Governing Board.
- 5.3. The decision to elect or remove from office the Chairperson shall be taken by the simple majority vote of all members of the Governing Board. If none of the candidates carry the majority vote, a repeated vote must be organized within one month after the election of the Governing Board. In case none of the candidates carry the necessary number of votes during three consecutive votings, the Chairperson shall be elected by the General Assembly of the Part-Owners by the simple majority vote.
- 5.4. The newly elected Governing Board shall elect the Chairperson in the first meeting of the Governing Board within one month after the election of the Governing Board.
- 5.5. The term of office of the Chairperson shall correspond to his/her term of office as the member of the Governing Board.

- 5.6. There is no limitation on the number of terms of office the Chairperson may serve.
- 5.7. The Chairperson shall represent the Governing Board and shall act on behalf of the Governing Board.
- 5.8. The Chairperson shall:
 - 5.8.1. organise the work of the Governing Board;
 - 5.8.2. convene the meetings of the Governing Board at his/her own initiative or at the initiative of any member of the Governing Board, prepare agendas and draft decisions and other draft documents of the Governing Board;
 - 5.8.3. invite other persons to the meetings of the Governing Board and grant him/her access to the information relating to the agenda of the meeting, if necessary;
 - 5.8.4. chair the meetings of the Governing Board (unless the Governing Board elects other member of the Governing Board to chair a particular meeting of the Governing Board);
 - 5.8.5. nominate to the Governing Board the candidates for the Deputy Chairpersons;
 - 5.8.6. inform members of the Governing Board about notices, proposals and other information received from the Part-Owners of the University, other members of the Governing Board and other persons;
 - 5.8.7. represent the interests of the University in relations with other persons within the scope of his/her competence established in the Statute and other legal acts;
 - 5.8.8. receive from the Rector all information about economic and academic activities of the University necessary for organising the work of the Governing Board and adoption of decisions;
 - 5.8.9. perform other duties set by the Statute, these Regulations and other legal acts.
- 5.9. The Chairperson is entitled to authorise and assign another member of the Governing Board to fulfil certain duties prescribed to the Chairperson or to perform certain actions.
- 5.10. The Chairperson is accountable to the Governing Board. At the request of any member of the Governing Board the Chairperson must provide a report or other explanations to the Governing Board about fulfilment of his/her duties.

Deputy Chairperson

- 5.11. The Governing Board may choose to elect (remove from office) the Deputy Chairperson (-s). The Chairperson shall nominate the candidates to the office of the Deputy Chairperson. The Governing Board shall establish the competence of the Deputy Chairperson. The Deputy Chairperson shall carry out the instructions of the Chairperson. The term of office of the Deputy Chairperson shall correspond to his/her term of office as the member of the Governing Board. The Deputy Chairperson shall be accountable to the Chairperson and the Governing Board.

- 6.42. The list of participants, information on the convening of the meeting and general ballots must be attached as annexes to the minutes.
- 6.43. Minutes shall be taken by a secretary of a meeting.
- 6.44. Minutes shall be signed by:
- (i) the Chairperson (who usually chairs all the meetings of the Governing Board) or other member of the Governing Board, elected by the Governing Board to chair the particular meeting and
 - (ii) the secretary of the meeting.
- 6.45. The minutes may also be signed by the persons authorised by the meeting of the Governing Board or by all members of the Governing Board participating in the meeting.
- 6.46. If all the members of the Governing Board took a written vote in advance, the minutes shall be taken and signed by the Chairperson.
- 6.47. If at least one member of the Governing Board participates in the meeting by means of electronic and telecommunication channels, all the member of the Governing Board participating in the meeting shall sign the minutes. In such case the minutes shall be written immediately following the meeting and sent by fax to the number provided by the member of the Governing Board who participates by means of electronic and telecommunication channels. The member of the Governing Board participating by means of electronic and telecommunication channels shall sign the minutes without delay and send back by fax to the Chairperson of the meeting, and the minutes with original signature shall be sent the same or the following working day via registered mail to the Chairperson of the meeting. In all other cases the minutes must be taken and signed within 30 (thirty) days as of the day on which a meeting was convened.
- 6.48. All documents approved in the meeting shall be attached to the minutes and shall be signed by the Chairperson of the meeting.
- 6.49. Decisions shall be written in Lithuanian and English.
- 6.50. Minutes of the meetings of the Governing Board shall be written in at least 2 (two) original counterparts. One counterpart shall be handed to the Chairperson for safekeeping and the other counterpart shall be handed for safekeeping to other member of the Governing Board, entrusted by the Governing Board to keep minutes. In case the Chairperson (or other member of the Governing Board, entrusted by the Governing Board to keep minutes) is replaced, he/she must hand over the original minutes to the successor of his/her office on the Governing Board.

- 6.51. All members of the Governing Board shall have the right to receive copies of the minutes and the documents approved in the meeting.
- 6.52. Members of the Governing Board who participated in the meeting shall enjoy the right to make remarks on the minutes and submit them to the Chairperson within three days as of the moment they have received them, however, neither the period of three days nor the maximum time limit for taking minutes established may be exceeded. Remarks on the minutes shall be attached to the minutes together with the information whether persons who signed the minutes agree or disagree with them.
- 6.53. The Chairperson of the meeting with the consent of the Governing Board can use audio recording equipment in the meeting of the Governing Board.

Announcement Of Decisions And Documents

- 6.54. The Rector shall announce to the community of the University the decisions and documents approved by the Governing Board, unless otherwise specified in the decision or the decisions are qualified as confidential.
- 6.55. The decisions of the Governing Board shall be passed to the Rector for implementation, unless otherwise specified in the decision.

Exceptions To Compliance With The Provisions

- 6.56. The meeting of the Governing Board may be convened in deviation from the terms and other requirements of convocation of the meeting, and the Governing Board may decide to discuss and vote on issues and draft decisions that were not included in the agenda if all the members of the Governing Board participate in the meeting in person and all of them give consent thereto.
- 6.57. In exceptional cases, when an urgent decision is required, the Governing Board may unanimously decide to discuss and unanimously vote at the meeting on the issues and draft decisions that are not included in the agenda even if not all the members of the Governing Board personally attend the meeting, provided that all the members of the Governing Board who did not personally attend the meeting approve such decisions in writing within a reasonable term not exceeding 10 (ten) calendar days. The decisions adopted in such a way shall become valid when all the members of the Governing Board who did not personally attend the meeting approve them in writing.
- 6.58. All and any activities, that are required or permitted to be performed at the meeting of the Governing Board, including the decision making, may be performed without convening the meeting if all the members of the Governing Board agree thereto. In such cases the Chairperson (or the member of the Governing Board initiating such an action of the Governing Board) prepares and delivers to all members of the Governing Board written decisions of the Governing Board for signing. In such case, these decisions shall be deemed to have been passed and come into force after all the members of the Governing Board sign such written decision.

VII. FINAL PROVISIONS

- 7.1. All the minor procedural aspects of activities of the Governing Board not provided for by these Regulations shall be solved at the suggestion of the Chairperson and by the consent of the majority members of the Governing Board present in the meeting.
- 7.2. The Governing Board is accountable to the General Assembly of the Part-Owners. The Governing Board at the request of the General Assembly of the Part-Owners must provide a report or other explanations to the General Assembly of the Part-Owners about fulfilment of its functions and copies of the approved decisions and documents.

- 7.3. The Regulations and its amendments shall become effective as of the day of adoption at the meeting of the Governing Board.
- 7.4. Headings of the sections or paragraphs used in these Regulations are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of these Regulations.
